“ Words cannot express how sorry I was to hear about Brad. His parents and mine were dear friends, long ago. Brad and I went through elementary school, junior high and good ole Lubbock High School together. I knew Brad to always be respectful, jolly and a gentle soul. As years go by and we lose contact with dear friends we truly never lose memories of old friends. My wish for the family is peace and always cherish all the memories each of you have made with Brad.

“ I’m deeply saddened to hear about Brad’s passing. I knew Brad from football at LHS and used to hang out with his sister Beatrice and her husband Ronnie. Brad was particularly kind to the underclassmen in high school, unlike most of the other seniors. Although I haven’t kept in touch with Ronnie and Bea since our high school days, please accept my condolences and know that I’ve been thinking of you all and will be praying for Brad’s family.
