Yet, it was his loyalty and dedication to the things he loved that truly defined him. Richard was not only a devoted husband to his beloved wife of 50 years, Marilyn, but also a proud father to his children and a treasured grandfather to his six grandchildren, whom he took great joy in spoiling. He cherished his roles as a father and grandfather, creating a lasting legacy of love and laughter for his family.

A passionate sports fan, Richard was a die-hard supporter of University of Kentucky Basketball, never missing an opportunity to cheer on his team - Go Big Blue! His infectious sense of humor shone brightly, as he delighted in pulling pranks and surprises that brought joy to friends and family alike.
