

Robert Pierce Keys

December 26, 1928 - October 21, 2014

ROBERT PIERCE KEYS completed his earthly journey on October 21, 2014. His family was blessed to be with him at his bedside, seeing him off to meet with his Heavenly Father and begin a great reunion.

Robert was born in East Liverpool, Ohio on December 26, 1928 to Claude Wennelworth and Mary Elizabeth (Brewer) Keys.

On November 21, 1951, in Mentor, Ohio, Robert married his sweetheart, Marjorie Ann Quincy. He then served in the army at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

His career spanned from working at Lubrizol Corporation in Wickliffe, Ohio, KSVP radio station in Artesia, New Mexico and Energas in Lubbock, Texas, where he and his wife called home for 43 years.

Using his wonderful voice Robert spent many volunteer hours recording books for the blind at Texas Tech University. For 10 years he volunteered delivering meals on wheels and helped others to learn the English language.

His loved ones include his wife, Marjorie of 63 years, two sons, Lloyd of Hemet, California; Timothy and wife, Sandra of Midland, Texas; daughter, Victoria of Artesia, New Mexico, three grandchildren, Gregory Pierce Keys, Emily Suzanne Keys and Phillip Douglas Hurlbut, two great grandchildren

William Pierce Keys and Luke Douglas Hurlbut; siblings, Rosemary Whitt of Clovis, New Mexico and Tom Keys of Plano, Texas.

Robert's life will continue to be celebrated by his legacy of love for his family, friends and country as well as his respect for others. He will be greatly missed.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to Cal Farley's Boys Ranch and Girlstown in Amarillo, Texas or Meals on Wheels.

Robert will be remembered at a private family service that will be planned at a later date.
