

Robert Ray "Bob" Smith

October 5, 1933 - October 6, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Robert Ray Smith, who left us on October 6, 2025, just a day after his 92nd birthday. Born on October 5, 1933, in Spur, Texas, Robert lived a life filled with love and adventure, most recently calling Slaton, Texas, his home. Robert was a devoted husband to Linda Smith, with whom he shared a joyful marriage since they tied the knot at their home on October 7, 1978. He dedicated many years of his life to his craft as a barber, he and his wife, worked side by side at the Hair Smith in Redbud Shopping center, working bringing style and care to the community through the art of hairdressing. In addition to his work, Robert was a man of many passions. He enjoyed bowling, felt the thrill of the open road while riding motorcycles, and found joy in woodworking, channeling his creativity into beautiful projects. His warm spirit and adventurous nature will be missed by all who knew him. Before settling into his life as a barber, Robert served honorably in the Army, enlisting on March 3, 1954, and being discharged as Specialist 3rd Class on June 21, 1955. His service to his country was a source of pride throughout his life. There will be no formal service at this time.

Robert was preceded in death by: James Smith, Rosamon Smith
