“ Robert was the best neighbor anyone could have as he was always helping others by mowing their lawns or helping with whatever someone needed. He and Maggie have been our neighbors for years and the best neighbors we ever had. Robert was always smiling and eager to visit. He loved his family and enjoyed telling us about his grandchildren. He will be greatly missed by his neighbors on 25th street. Maggie, you and your family have our deepest sympathy. We are lifting each of you up in prayer. ”

“ I was 6 years old. He brought in the groceries and said he left something under the seat. I went out to get it and it was a brand new baseball glove. He had signed me up to play baseball. He introduced me to love of the game. Daddy I will strive every day to be all that you wanted for us. I will also strive to be as loving as you were. You were the epitome of unconditional love for us. I love you with all my heart.

I remember going to his and his brothers baseball games, Robert was a great person. Him and his wife Maggie were my God parents at my wedding in 1980. My cousin Robert was a wonderful person. I even remember going to their house and he would always offer us something to snack on. Rest in peace cousin.
