“ What a gift of words he had. I remember when I had gone home, to Lubbock, for yet another funeral service, and the group was standing just outside the chapel door. I had something ticklish on my face, probably a hair, near my nose, and kept struggling to remove it. Rodney (Bud) was standing beside me, and offered "If it's a booger, I'll get it for you". The group burst out laughing even though we were all so sad. I'll place money that isn't the only time he used his humor, to lighten a situation.

Love you, Bud
