“ Guess we first met Roland (and you) at your Mom and Dad's house in Pettit, Patsy, very soon after we moved to West Texas. Both Roland and Junior played golf at Slaton more than a few times, after we moved there. Good memories! We're sorry for your loss and pray for comfort for the family. Shirley and R. G. “ We feel so fortunate that we had the privilege to play golf with Roland. What we really enjoyed was our time together after playing. We would sit in the club house and beg him to tell us golf stories. He was a legend with a capital L.

You can tell a lot about a person if you play golf with them. Roland's character was impeccable. Rest In Peace, our friend.
