Services for Roy Alexander, 73, of Lubbock will be at 3:00 p.m., Monday, September 17, 2012 at Sanders Memorial Chapel with Rev. Bruce Cotton officiating. Family will receive friends at the funeral home on Monday from 2:00 p.m. until service. Interment will follow at City of Lubbock Cemetery. Roy was born Earnest LeRoy Alexander on May 13, 1939 in Gorman, TX to George and Bertie Alexander. He attended Lubbock High School. He married Murl Gaddis on July 24, 1976 in Lubbock. Roy was a Lubbock ceramic tile contractor for 40 years. During their retired years they enjoyed seeing wondrous places in America with their RV group. He was extremely proud of his family, particularly his grandchildren.

Roy fought a valiant battle with cancer for many years.

Survivors include his wife, Murl Alexander, of Lubbock; children, Phil Riddle of Weatherford, Donna Alexander of Amarillo, Tim Alexander of Dallas, Patricia Vogel of Germany, Terry Gaddis of McKinney, and Shirley Cahn of Plano; 10 grandchildren (known to them as Pop Pop and Papa Roy), Christian, Susanna, Peter, Tori, Philip, Luke, Krista, Alex, TJ, and Whitney; four great grandchildren; siblings, Thomas Alexander of San Antonio, Evelyn Ellington of Muleshoe, Faye Crawford of Uvalde, and J.C. Alexander of Venita, OR. He is preceded in death by his parents; siblings, George and Herschel Alexander, Audra Schindler, and Dorothy Finn; and a step-son, Paul Gaddis.

Family suggests memorials may be made in Roy's name to Hospice of Lubbock or Joe Arrington Cancer Center.

Be assured of many thoughts and prayers from Maryland.

I'm sure you have many treasured family memories over these past weeks just as we did toward the end with Dad.
