

Russell Watkins

November 20, 1927 - February 2, 2018

One of the many stories told by Russell Lee Roy Watkins is about his birth in Seminole county Oklahoma to John and Ida Watkins. Included in various stories were siblings gone on before of Rex, Shirley and Orval. As well as those still with us of Raymond, Syable, Gerald and John. He would tell o how he met his Snook'ems Geneva and married her on April 4th, 1951. Then the ones told of the Garrett family all who opened their hearts and all became a part of his. Even though miles were between a lot of cousins, nieces and nephews of a continuing growing family he would tell others of what he knew and remembered. Anyone that would pull up a chair would hear of times past from the Army, workdays of many years at Lakewood Pipe, Church times of the Men's fellowship breakfast, those of his daughter Theresa, granddaughter Chassady, grandson Santa, and great-grandchildren Makenzee, Anthony, Tawny and Tucker. Gran, Grandpa, Father, Husband, Friend, many names to many people but to God he was an angel that touched many hearts. On February 2, 2018 he started telling his stories in Heaven but his family will continue telling them to others here on earth for him.
