“ I worked with Ruth many years ago at the old museum building, Holden Hall, when we were with the International Center for Arid and Semi-Arid Land Studies (with Dr. Dregne, Dr. Traylor, Dr. Goodin, Dr. Mathis, and Gay Riggan). It has been many years since I've talked to her but she was always a wonderful woman to work with and brought lots of wonderful goodies to share -- including her home-made banana pudding! I rarely look at the Lubbock paper online and am blessed to have logged on today and to have seen this. Prayers for your family. Tina McCloy (formerly Clark) Lusby, Fayetteville, AR
