

Sally Ann Joiner

December 19, 1942 - February 1, 2026

Sally Ann Joiner, a beloved mother grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on February 1, 2026, at the age of 83. She was born on December 19, 1942, in Stinnett, Texas, and raised in both Stinnett and Borger. Sally lived a life filled with love and kindness, leaving a lasting impact on all who knew her.

Throughout her career, Sally dedicated herself to various roles, starting as a homemaker and later working tirelessly as a cook at Girls Town and a cafeteria worker in Kentucky. She eventually found her true passion as a bartender, where her warm smile and generous spirit made her a favorite among patrons. After retiring, Sally devoted her time to volunteer work, touching the lives of countless individuals in her community.

An extraordinary talented seamstress and crocheter, Sally's hands brought warmth and creativity into the lives of her family and friends. Her love for gardening transformed her home into a haven of beauty, filled with vibrant colors and fragrant blooms. An avid sports fan, she passionately cheered for her teams, especially the Tennessee Volunteers and Texas Tech Red Raiders. She relished her visits to the horse races, always enjoying the thrill of the moment. Sally also had a special affinity for animals and opened her heart and home to many strays, lucky enough to find her.

Sally is survived by her loving children, Tony Martin ,David Joiner, Tracy Castellaw, Kelly Holland, Travis Marcum and Mark Markcum; her cherished brother, John Lackey. Eleven adoring grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren, all of whom will miss her immensely.

Sally Ann Joiner will forever remain in our hearts, a shining example of compassion and resilience. May she rest in peace.

Sally was preceded in death by her sister, Mary Lackey and her parents George T. and Gwen Lackey.
