

Sandra Delgado

November 30, 1962 - March 18, 2020

Sandra Delgado, 57, passed away Wednesday, March 18, 2020. Sandra was born to Juan and Juanita Delgado on November 30, 1962 in Lubbock, Texas. Sandra obtained her CNA license on July 1, 1997 and was recognized in the Lubbock Avalanche Journal for her dedication and exceptional patient care on July 31, 2000.

Sandra was the 6th of 12 children. Her siblings included Rudy, Raymond, Eddie, Albert, Veronica, Adam, Maria, Daniel, Carolina, David, and Christianna.

Sandra is survived by her two sons, Louis Delgado and Rocky Martinez. She is also survived by her five grandchildren, Derek, Katherine, Jaden, Joselyn, and Zoey, all of Lubbock. Sandra became a mother at a very young age, and despite her age, lack of knowledge and life experience, there was no doubt Sandra did the best for her boys and loved them dearly.

Those who new Sandra, knew she loved her sweets, and her big red. She always had her sweet tooth on point. Sandra was always willing to care for those who needed her help despite her own limitations due to her own health issues.

Sandra always found the strength to surpass any struggle or challenge she encountered, she had a strong will.

Sandra had love for everyone and didn't hesitate to express her feelings, good or bad. She had a unique laugh; anyone who knew her could tell it was her laugh from another room.

Sandra will never be forgotten and will forever remain in our hearts and memory.

“Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.”

Matthews 5:4

Who comfort us in all of our troubles so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.”
