“ I have always felt that I was very lucky to have grown up during the 50's and even "luckier" to have grown up with all the wonderful kids around George R. Bean Elementary. Saundra was one of those crazy kids that I loved and made wonderful memories with then, and later in life as well. Rest in peace dear friend. You will be missed.

“ I first remember seeing Sandra in a Sunday School General Assembly before breaking out into girls and boys Sunday School Classes. Even in the 7 grade , she was tall but had great posture and wore a beautiful smile. (I know about good posture as I was very tall and my dear Mother reminded me daily: “Gary, stand tall, hold your shoulders back and DON’T slough!”.) When I saw her at different times in our life ... I always admired her lovely smile and wonderful posture. At LHS I remember that she was very active in student activities and “volunteered” to be the business manager for the annual year book her Junior “and” senior year. That was serious business! At the Class of 60 ... 50th reunion I was fortunate to meet Sandra and Georgene in between reunion gatherings. Somehow, I persuaded them to have lunch with me. What an entertaining and enjoyable lunch. I didn’t dated either one in high some and remember thinking, I really missed knowing two delightful ladies! In the last few years I have been sending out obituaries of members of our class. Sandra was always thoughtful and considerate in her appreciation of be included in the mail out. I was miss Sandra and having contact with her in these “silver senior years”.

“ I am Sad, I am lost without my very best friend, Sandra. We met 73 years ago and our friendship grew stronger every year since. Athletes and Movie Stars have Agents or Managers; I had Sandra. Any accomplishments I ever made or any goal I had Was backed and supported by Sandra. She was in the background cheering me on . When things were tough, she was there to encourage. She was always there to share a good laugh. She was my rock. We have lived miles apart since 1968 but have stayed in close contact. In the last few years we talked almost weekly on the phone. Now my earth Angel is an Angel in Heaven. Thank you dear friend for everything.
