“ My friend, my mentor, my pastor, Sandy Zeh was that and a lot more to my family and me. His passion for the lost led him to the bedside of a pretty crusty, foul mouthed, ill tempered young man. I imagine when he left he might have thought that he had wasted his time. Little did either of us know that after he left the room, the God He proclaimed stayed behind for awhile. Thank you my friend for your faithfulness, as you know, that day changed my life forever, and my family and I want to say to you, "Well done, good and faithful servant!" Won't say goodbye to such a great friend, but will say, See you soon, and say hi to the Rosebud for me! ”

“ I grew up with Sandy. We played together as children, sang in a couple of musical groups as young adults, and enjoyed get-togethers as young married couples. It was such a blessing to be able to spend some time with him just the week before he died. We will all miss him.

“ When Sandy was pastor at Faith Baptist Wichita Falls and announced he would be leaving to go to Beaumont I cried. I cried because I was selfish and didn't want to lose him as a pastor. When I learned he had gone home to heaven I rejoiced for him and cried for his family. Thank you Sandy for giving to the Lord and Thank you Lord for giving us Sandy Sandlin. One day there will be no goodbyes. 🙏❤️🙏
