“ *She is your person
In those times of need, your aunt is who you think of first. She is your first and real best friend, because she knew you when you were a baby and she knew your parents when they were young and reckless and she knew the family secrets so you don't have to explain anything to her. She knows it all and she knows how to solve your problems. Your conversations can go on forever and it will only feel like a minute. (Copied from The Hearty Soul)
Aunt Janese was ALWAYS my person. She was there for me so many many times.
I pray we all learn from her grace and strength.*

I worked at Methodist Hospital, now Covenant in the early 80's. We would meet in the PSM office for lunch. Janese loved her family and co-workers. She was very good at her job of helping patients and families during hospitalizations. A true God's helper. I know she was a great friend to me and many others.

Peace Family and friends in your days ahead. Blessings Amen
