

Shana Lea Lansidel

September 30, 1969 - February 4, 2026

Shana Lea Lansidel, born on September 30, 1969, in Fresno, California, passed away on February 4, 2026, in Lubbock, Texas. She is survived by her devoted husband, Jeffrey Lansidel; her loving brother, Eddie Strivens; and her cherished sisters, Sue Zoffman, Sherry Hernandez and Cyndy Pilhorn; stepdaughter, Holly Lansidel and stepson Tommy Lansidel.

Raised in Fresno, Shana graduated from Fresno High School in 1988, setting the foundation for a life characterized by dedication and hard work. For the last 17 years, she was a Senior Analyst with Aetna, where she made significant contributions for seventeen years in the health insurance industry.

On April 11, 2015, Shana joyfully united in marriage with Jeff Lansidel in her hometown of Fresno. Together, they built a life filled with love, laughter, and countless adventures. Shana had a passion for crafting, channeling her creativity into beautifully crafted projects that brought joy to those lucky enough to receive them. She also cherished traveling with Jeff, exploring new places and making memories that would last a lifetime.

Everyone who knows Shana knows how thoughtful, organized and how she made everyone feel seen. She asked the hard questions and really wanted to hear you. She was everyone's biggest cheerleader. Shana was full of warmth, and her vibrant spirit touched the lives of many, and her memory will forever be etched in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She was very passionate about kids and every child from 0-10 had an instant connection with her. She cherished the families of the kids that she was able to 'babysit' for knowing she could make a difference in their lives; you will be in forever in her heart.

She "loved your face" and her mama told her, "if you can walk, you can work"; she lived by that phrase and mantra her whole life and would want you to do the same.

Shana was preceded in death by her parents, George and Shirley Strivens.

Cemetery Details

Miller Crematory

202 Avenue Q
Lubbock, TX 79415

Tribute Wall

C(

“ I loved so much that part of my life where's Shana was a part of it - in Frederick Maryland. I cannot think of a time between the two churches where we attended together that I wasn't greeted with just the most sincere and warm life-giving love that Shana would emanate. Her eyes glistened and just spilled out love and kindness to whomever she was talking to. I've seen such amazing commitment to family through Shana's life. In this world where love is often so fleeting, Shana will be missed because her love was enduring!. These memories of her faithful love will go on encouraging hearts eternally. ❤️💔❤️

Christine Weber (John) - February 09 at 12:08 PM

JW

“ To my beloved work wife, dear friend and travel companion my heart aches knowing I will not see your smile and hear your laugh again but i will always have those memories of our travels together with you and Jeff. Rest well my dear friend. Fair winds and following Seas.

Joe Webb - February 06 at 05:32 PM

MS

“ I'll always remember the bouncy and curious nature that was Shana when I first met her in her teens. She had a smile that reminded me of the Cheshire Cat in the best way. So inquisitive, detail oriented and crafty. I also remember her baking all the time. I'll not forget that sweet little Shanee with the spark that could remind you that she was taking everything in and when she let loose with a hug, it was always the tightest most wonderful hug ever. Thanks for sharing your love with us. ❤️

Merika Strivens - February 06 at 05:02 PM