Shelley Lynn Myers Jordan, 62, of Lubbock departed this life on Thursday, May 29, 2014.

Memorial services will be held on Saturday, June 7, 2014 at 10:00 a.m. at Sanders Memorial Chapel in Lubbock with Dr. Ken Horn, officiating. Arrangements are under the personal care of Sanders Funeral Home of Lubbock.

She loved spending time with her granddaughter Zoi and attending her equestrian activities. She will be remembered for her creativity and artistic abilities. She loved animals and always had a place for them in her heart as well as in her home.

Shelley was humble and always willing to help others, whether it was with a project or with advice on cancer treatment. As a child, you could usually find her in a quiet place reading a book.

She was preceded in death by her father, Wiley J. (Jackie) Myers. Survivors include husband, Danny Jordan of Lubbock; two daughters, Heather Jordan of Dallas and Courtney Huntsman and husband Sean of Lubbock; one granddaughter, Zoi Huntsman; mother, Marjorie Myers of Lubbock; one brother, Steven Myers of Houston, three sisters, Jinna Brownlees and husband Victor of Belfast, Northern Ireland, Ruanna Gossett of Sacramento, California, and Jamie McCann and husband Ronnie of Denver, Colorado.

“ I remember Shelley through our work at the Texas Department of Health. We both worked in the Cancer Registry. Loved her incredible memory - once she heard or read it, she had it. She also was very detail oriented - a perfect cancer registrar. Personally, I remember her love of animals and how she was always acquiring another stray - she thought people purposely dropped off animals on her road because they had heard she would take them in. So am very happy that her memorial funds are requested to go to an animal shelter. Pat Ploegsma

“ I met Shelley when I was 18 years old and we became instant friends. You automatically loved her because of her caring and gracious personality. Shelley was one of the kindest and most generous people I have ever met. I haven't seen her in a few years, but I always thought of her as a true friend and will never forget her. My deepest sympathy to all who loved her.

“ Having known Shelley for many years, working with her at Macro and ICF, traveling with her on various projects, spending time with her at conferences, and seeing her at various get-togethers at the home office, I can only say what a tragedy this is to lose such a kind and giving person as Shelley. She always had a smile for everyone and wanted everyone around her to be happy. She loved to do anything for anyone and had such a generous heart. I pray for peace and comfort for those you loved her and will miss her. She will never be forgotten by those who knew her infinite kindness.

“ AS a fellow ICF staff member, I had the opportunity to work with Shelley on a few occasions over the years in cancer registry. She was well respected in our field, and had so much knowledge and experience she was willing to share with you in her kind, sweet ways. Shelley was always the ultimate professional. My sincere sympathies to the family, and to my ICF colleagues who also mourn her loss. Shelley, we will miss you and hold you in our hearts forever.....
