

Shelley Dawn Lane

May 18, 1967 - November 3, 2019

Shelley Lane was born May 18, 1967 in Lubbock, Texas. She went to be with Jesus on November 3, 2019 at her home after a lengthy battle with cancer.

She is survived by her husband Roy; one son Timothy, her mother Genell, sister Derinda and nephew Dalton. And a host of loving cousins, aunts and uncles.

She was preceded in death by her father Wilker, Grandparents Dolly and Happy Cheek, Grandma Josie Pritchard.

She loved to sing and started singing in choir in the fourth grade and continued through high school and college. She graduated with honors from Coronado High School where she lettered in soccer and travelled with the choir to Washington, DC when President Reagan was inaugurated. She sang in the choir at South Plains Junior College and in church choir at Elgin Avenue Baptist Church.

As a child she enjoyed camping with her family and especially loved the mountains of New Mexico.

She married Roy Lane April 4, 1991. After she became a mother she chose to become a full time mother, wife and homemaker.

She was one of the founding members of The Crimson Dames chapter of the Red Hat Society. She loved all the activities and all her redhat sisters.

She was a member of The Eagles Lodge and played on a winning dart team.

She loved her dogs as if they were her children. She made many friends whatever she was involved in. She will be missed very much.
