“ Shirley was a sweetheart and one of my favorite cousins. Many a summer, my Dad (LB Freeman, Aunt Punk's baby brother) would load us in the car and make that loooooonng drive West from Big D to Lubbock, and for a little girl it was a long drive -- even though we rarely stopped for a bathroom break LOL! But once we got there it was such fun. We were lucky in that our family has a great if not sick sense of humor! None of us was above a thoughtful little insult and when you received one you laughed the loudest. Shirley included <3 And don't think she couldn't deal them out. I remember one time, she did have to scold me a little because i had a new camera and repeatedly tricked my younger sister into bending over to look at something on the ground so I could take a picture of her derrière! I only did it because she refused to put her shorts on and kept walking around in her undies! Shirley made me stop though, and confiscated the camera. Lots of fun times in Lubbock!! She will be sorely missed. Love to all the family and big big hugs. I miss you all. - Much Love, Liana Freeman Reagan

“ Shirley was my second mamma, just like Floyd was my second daddy. She was the most loving and caring soul and always made me feel loved and special and part of the family. She knew she was loved, and she was, but I know in my heart that she is so happy to be with her love, Floyd. I love and miss you both.

“ Shirley and I were going shopping one day and I was speeding a little and got pulled over. I was understandably upset because I didn't want a ticket. He asked me why I was speeding. I was honest and told him we were just blabbing away and I didn't see the speed limit sign. When he took my license and registration to his car, Shirley looks at me dead serious and says "Oh, my God! He's going to find out!" My eyes got real big and I said, " WHAT WARRANTS?!! That's when she started giggling. She really had me there for a minute. I loved her very much.
