

Stanley N. Ehrenpreis

May 24, 1929 - January 22, 2025

Stanley N. Ehrenpreis, 95, died peacefully in his home, on January 22, 2025, when the planets were aligned. He died surrounded by his family in Lubbock, Texas, where he and his beloved wife, Lin, of 61 years, moved in August 2024 to be with family. He was born in Brownsville, Pennsylvania and raised in McKeesport and lived in Squirrel Hill for over 60 years.

Stanley had many passions in his long life, family was always first. Then came inventions - His grandson, Willem, called him "Captain Inventivity" when he was about 10 yrs old and talked about his Sure Tear Computer Paper Edge remover, his paper towel dispenser and his favorite invention, the hydraulic lift that he, his brother, Joshua and his cousin, Isaiah, could use to lift up the 50-60lb RV tire with ease. Stanley could always come up with a better way to do something, and could fix almost anything! After that came music, he played in the Pitt band for 4 years and he played his clarinet at his 90th birthday party. He enjoyed the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, and Chamber Music. Other passions included Skiing, golf and camping (from tents to RVS), auctions (from junk to fine arts) and having a martini with olives on the side, with friends. He graduated from The University of Pittsburgh, served in the Air Force during the Korean conflict and retired as a Captain. He was a 32nd degree Mason, and played in the Syria Shrine Band and other musical groups, including being a founding member of the JCC Orchestra, where he played for many years. He enjoyed his long and productive career with Westinghouse Electric where he had several patents related to nuclear reactors.

Stanley is survived by his loving wife, Lin, and his daughter, Amie Duemer (Alex Garza) in Lubbock and his son, and Best Friend, Andrew Ehrenpreis (Dulce Andrade Ehrenpreis) from Brooklyn, and his beloved grandchildren; Joshua Duemer (Alex Kirby), Isaiah Ehrenpreis, Willem Duemer, Armany Andrade (Kristina Reyes), Alexis Garza, Arielle Garza (Jonathan Rivera) and Annika Garza. He is preceded in death by his Parents, Abraham and Rose Ehrenpreis, his grandson, Josef Duemer, and his sisters, Eileen Sheer and Gege Lazer. He is also loved dearly by his nieces and nephews; Debbie Haverson (Michael), Patti Sheer (Bob Conley), Sally Lazer and Bill Sheer (Ana).

The family would like to thank Hospice of Lubbock for the wonderful support they provided us during this time.

In Lieu of flowers, Stanley would like donations to go to the South Plains Kidney Foundation, where his daughter is the Executive Director:

“ Stanley was larger than life. I fondly remember his help as I opened a store in Squirrel Hill, Pa in 1994. He had almost all of the things I needed to open my store. ( in his garage). I miss his smiling face and his wife Lin. Rest in peace Stanley. Love, Michael Ferraro
