“ Steve and Marilyn King - I'd be hard pressed to name bigger supporters of so many of John's baseball, football, and basketball teams. Seems like I was on many of them. I have countless impactful memories through my youth of Steve approaching John's teammates, myself included, after games with encouraging words regardless of a win or loss. He was such a kind gentlemen, everything one would want in a father. I always looked forward to visiting with both him and Marilyn at our games and even later on in life. I'll always value his uplifting spirit and support he shared over the years. He was a great man. Please give John and Marilyn a big hug for me. Godspeed, Steve King.
