“ I will always treasure the memories of going to the "pea patch" and then shelling pea, shucking corn, and laughing. He taught me how to jetterbug, and showed everyone unconditional love. He was a joy all the time. On my wedding day he gave me a pence to put in my left shoe that he brought back from the WWII. He treated me like a daughter not just a niece. Love him so much. My heart prayers and love are with you now and always.
