“ Thinking of MeMe today. She'd be very proud of Brittany, AveryBelle, Bino, #2, and Duke just as I am. She's able to be with Matthew today and I know he is very proud of the kids as we are.

“ My name is Larry Ackers and I was proud to know Sybil at Plaza Cleaners. She was an absolute joy to know and talk with. I couldn't believe her age. She looked and acted much younger. A very pretty lady both in looks and heart. The last time I saw her was when I went by the cleaners on 50th to visit with her. We shared a mutual acquaintance (and very dear friend of hers.....Loretta at House of Shades). She will be missed. God Bless you Sybil.

“ I remember Sybil as a loving, Godly woman. As a child I enjoyed being in her home and with her at church. The family devotion to the Lord and Southside Baptist meant so much to me. The family yearly Lottie Moon offering gift will always be a story I will share. I always enjoyed seeing Sybil and in the last few years visiting with her as she picked up her Jimmy Gary calendars this time of the year. Sybil sure loved her girls! May God comfort each of you during these next few days and weeks. Love to all, Kathy Smith O'Guinn
