“ Sybil became one of my dearest friends after I retired from teaching. She, Gaynelle, and I became traveling buddies for mission trips. She was a most delightful person to "hit the road" with and helped me grow in the Lord in so many ways. She was willing to do anything that was Christ centered and wanted to not be a burden but a blessing on each trip. Some of my favorite times with her were shared around a kitchen sink washing dishes. The last time that she was at my home was Christmas time for a Margie Mines meeting. The two of us cleaned up the dishes from a luncheon with our MM group. Because of her failing health, our last few years of quality time have been email exchanges and a few telephone conversations. Her big smile and love of others will always be a part of my fondest memories. She could always find a special event to make a trip a great memory. On trips to House Party at Baylor, she was gracious and took us by her family farm. How she loved her family and treasured the parents God had given her. As our Heavenly Father received her "home" last week, I am so pleased to be one of those on earth whose life she touched. Charlotte Branum Northington
