

Tasha Monique Fitts

October 6, 1980 - December 18, 2020

Tasha Monique Fitts (Garcia), 40, of Lubbock, Texas passed away Friday, December 18, 2020. A viewing will take place on December 30th, 2020 at 6 p.m., and a celebration of the life of Tasha will be at 11:00 a.m., Thursday, December 31, 2020 in Sanders Memorial Chapel located at 1420 Main Street. Tasha was born October 6, 1980 to Louis Garcia and Ramona Spence (McBride) in Las Vegas, New Mexico, where she spent her early years growing up. She spent most of her years in Lubbock, Texas where she graduated from Monterey High School in 1999. She then went on to graduate from Cosmetology school and began her career as a Nail Technician. Tasha had a huge heart and enjoyed her career because she made others feel better and was able to support her two sons by doing what she loved for the last 20 years. She always had a talent for making others feel beautiful, which may have stemmed from her mother always forcing her to do her little sister's hair. She had strong faith in the love of God and was a dedicated member of The Worship Center and spent many of her hours volunteering and helping others in need. It was at church that she met her husband, Douglas Fitts, and they married on September 15, 2017. Her husband, family, and friends were incredibly supportive of a thriving business centered around fashion that she had also recently begun. Through her career she met many friends, whom she loved spending quality time with. Family and friends were everything to Tasha, and she always went out of her way to make others feel loved. She always let you know she was thinking of you and would never miss a birthday or holiday. She will be remembered most for her beautiful smile, and her ability to light up the room. She will be missed by many.

Tasha is survived by her loving husband of 3+ years, Douglas Fitts, of Morton, Texas; Mother Ramona Spence (McBride) of Lubbock, Texas; Step Father John Spence of Austin, Texas; Father Louis Pete Garcia of Las Vegas, New Mexico; Step-Mother Mabel Garcia of Las Vegas, New Mexico; Grandfather Luis S.
