Teddy was a great story teller and when he met up with his cousin, Paul Revier, it was difficult to know who had the best story! Teddy will be missed by many but we know he was a Christian, a family man and one who would keep his word. We will miss you Teddy.

“ Nothing stands out in my mind more than Teddy at a 42/84 table. He was one of the funniest people I've ever known. A life well lived. A man well loved. ❤️

“ I have such wonderful memories of Papa Teddy. He was kind and caring. His laughter was infectious. I especially loved going to the farm in my childhood (cherished memories) and it still makes me laugh thinking how he would tease Linda and I on our hoeing weeds out of the Cotten skills(or lack of). I remember asking asking Papa Teddy to come and talk to my class on what it was like to be a farmer. He was so gracious to come and talk and was a class favorite when it came to question and answer time. I remember how early he got up to work in the field. Probably my first understanding how very hard farmers work and how important they are to all of us. It was always fun when we were able to visit. The last time we got to visit, sweet momma Dorothy made one of her scrumptious meals and we all sat around the table laughing and fellowshiping with one another.. I look forward when we all will be able to eat together again when Jesus comes. Holding you all close in our hearts, sending prayers and many hugs. Love you Janine & Robert

Teddy was a dreamer who lived long enough, fast enough and smart enough to see those dreams become visions. He was always glad to see me and wondering what he could do for me. I loved hearing his thoughts for the day, his musings for tomorrow and his almost often fantastic tales from the past. I am glad and honored to have had you travel in and out and all about my life. I'm gonna miss being able to stop by and see how ya are.
