“ I met my Preacher a few years ago doing catering events. We had visited several churches but nothing seemed to fit. He invited us to a catering event where he had a John Wayne impersonator well I knew I could get my husband there. (Because if you didn't know Preacher liked John Wayne too!!) We went to another event and was even invited to a Christmas gathering. After that Brother Terry came into the store at Valentines Day looking for a gift for Ms Preacher again another invitation to attend church. Finally talked Cliff into visiting one Sunday after a few visits he decided he could really preach just like his Dad the rest is history.

Preacher was also inspired to sponsor our Granddaughter Schyler on her Mission trip to 11 different countries for 11 months the experience of her lifetime. In fact today she posted a picture of a child holding her so tight and she would love to do this again one day.

This has been really hard for Cliff because Preacher is the brother he never had. We love the Kirkpatrick family each and everyone and have been so blessed to be a part of Wayne Avenue Baptist Church. May God bless and comfort the Kirkpatrick family. Preacher you will be truly missed.

“ Having worked with Preacher for almost 3 years and having a friendship with him for another 3 and a half, I had a lot of trouble coming to a decision as to what to write about him. Do I talk about the jokes we told each other while riding in the truck? Do I include the experiences we shared while working in the ministry? Talk about the accidents that occurred that led to hilarious results? There was just too much to sift through, so rather than give a lot of memories, I will focus on what he has left to me. He has changed me as a person. Taking a young man down on his luck and spiritual life, he (through the spirit) helped me mature into a God honoring minister. He has left me with a compassion for the sick and hurting. He has instilled in me a depth of integrity and diligence even when it is hard. He has given me a love for God and His Word. Knowing Preacher, has made me a better man, father, husband, and child of God. While our world weeps for its loss, Heaven rejoices as God welcomes home and old friend.

“ I met Mr. Terry a few months ago when I became his nurse here in Dallas. When he first met me, he wanted to know my background and if I was good at giving shots or just proficient in handling needles. We laughed after I stuck him for his labs that he did not barely feel it. He said "kid you got a gift!" Although I only saw him once but talked to him several times over the phone, he was a kind-heart and had a loving soul.

May God grant you his close family and friends peace and comfort during this time of sorrow.

“ Pastor Terry will be greatly missed. I remember the first time my friend, Brenda picked me up and took me to visit Wayne Avenue Baptist. I felt the presence of God that day. I loved hearing the word of God come through the pastor's sermons. I knew after several visits that I had found my new church family. Pastor Terry and his wife are such awesome people. Lord thank you for Pastor Terry!! Please be with his wife and family and comfort them. In Jesus name. Amen.

There is a saying and a Song "Only the Good Die Young!" Terry Kirkpatrick was that Man blessed by God with a humble yet strong spirit. Who passed from this life as a Good Man who stepped into the presence of his beloved Saviour and Lord Jesus and heard the eternal words "Well done thou good and faithful servant . . .". The pain of this life is gone for Terry as he is now in the presence of peace, joy and love of a level none of us can understand this side of heaven. For his family take comfort in those thoughts.

Terry meant so much to me personally that the space for the words is not available he loved my parents with a love deeper than just a pastor and friend. I called him brother not just because of the Salvation we share but the love we shared for those two people. I will remember for the rest of my living days the passion and grief he had for them at each of their memorial services. I want to thank his wife and family for sharing him with all of our family and all of the families he ministered to. God Bless you with comfort that only he can give in this time of loss.

*My family verse seems to be appropriate here. Phillipians 1:21
"For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."*

Jamie & Susan Billings in loving memory of Charles & Jean Billings they loved Terry Kirkpatrick Like a Son

PS But, I am a little up set at him though he will get to get fishing time with dad and some of mom's banana pudding, pecan pie and bread pudding before I do.

Terry Curtis Kirkpatrick was my brother/nephew, he loved his wife, children, grandchildren and his extended family, and he loved God and Jesus with all his heart. Terry rose above some difficult times in his life, and became the most wonderful and beloved man I have ever known. I will miss him along with the rest of our family. I know he is with God now, and looking down on all of us, to make sure we are ok, like he has always done. Pastor Terry, we love you and will miss you.
