

Terry Wadsworth

March 31, 2017

Terry Wadsworth of Ruidoso, New Mexico passed away March 31, 2017. The family will be planning memorials in Austin, Texas and Ruidoso, New Mexico at later dates.

Terry was born August 15, 1936 in Nogales, Arizona to Chet and Mary Wadsworth. He graduated from Temple High School in 1954 and then attended Texas A&M, graduating as a member of the class of '58. He served in the Army's Corps of Engineers. After his tour of duty, he began architecture in Phoenix, Arizona following this with a long architectural career in Austin, Texas. He was active and had leadership positions in a number of social, civic and professional organizations such as A&M Club, Lions Club, and the Construction Specifications Institute. He retired in January 2012 and with his wife Charisse moved to Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Terry is survived by his wife, Charisse, of 32 years children Mike and spouse Mitzi Wadsworth, Melanie and spouse James Fenelon, Josh and spouse Shanna Wadsworth, Beki and spouse Kelly Wilson, brother Richard Wadsworth and faithful dog Betsy. He has many grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other family members and friends who will all miss him dearly.