“ Our hearts are with you as you grieve Tomie's passing. He was a loving and gentle man and we loved him as part of our family from the time he and Janie were so close. When we'd get together, we would always play games...in fact, our whole family still plays "Joker" that we learned from him. We couldn't make it to Lubbock for the service, but we watched it online. It was a very nice tribute. And as the song at the end said, Tomie's "chains are gone" and he's "been set free". Praise God for eternal reward for a life well lived. Love from Dave and Carolyn Sims
