

Tommie Wayne Mackey

September 27, 1950 - May 13, 2023

Tommie Wayne Mackey, 72, of Lubbock, Texas

Greatly loved husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, passed to new life - once and for all beating the cancer that he fought honorably every day for over 7 years - on Saturday, May 13.

Tommie was known for his passion for the outdoors and could always be found in conversation about fishing or hunting - never failing to share pictures along the way. When you could get him to come inside, you would find him either surrounded by his family, or playing the steel guitar with his musician friends when possible.

He is preceded in death by his father, Billy Mackey and is survived by his wife, Sharon Mackey; his mother, Ruthie Mackey; his brother, Ronnie Mackey (Doretha); his children: Gina Crawford (Brad), Steven Mackey (Trisha), and James Mackey (Melissa), seven grandchildren; and 3 great-grandchildren; and nieces & great nieces. Visitation will be 7-8:30 pm, Tuesday, May 16, 2023. The Memorial service will be 10:30 am, Wednesday, May 17, 2023, at Sanders Funeral Home, followed by graveside services at City of Lubbock Cemetery. A webcast of services will be available as well as our online guest book.

Well cousin...I was going to admitt that between the two of us...you were the better fisherman...but...I'll save that conversation when I catch up to you on the "other side"! I'll miss laughing and sharing those tall tales with you cuz....until then, you rest easy. One other point...you are one of the best I've ever known and I love you dearly. Johnny

“ I remember Tommie as happy , good hearted person and always smiles. How do know Tommy is, Aunt Sharon nephew Mark McWilliams, we were visiting from Alaska . We were at a family barbecue at Aunt Becky house. Welcomed me with a beautiful smile and his kindness.I will truly miss you and that beautiful smile and your cowboy hat too.Rest in Peace And please keep a watch over Sharon from heaven.
