October 12, 1952 - March 29, 2025

Tommy Kent McCormick, born on October 12, 1952, in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, passed away on March 29, 2025, in Lubbock, Texas. A devoted father and grandfather, Tommy is survived by his sons, Erick, Derrick, and Barry McCormick, daughter-in-law Lynn McCormick, and his brother Eldon McCormick. He cherished every moment spent with his twelve grandchildren, instilling in them a sense of love and support throughout their lives.

An electrician by trade, Tommy retired from the Lubbock State School, where he made lasting friendships and memories. He found joy in the simple pleasures of life, such as spending weekends fishing, enjoying the great outdoors, and cheering on his favorite sports teams, particularly basketball. One of his proudest moments was watching his son Barry excel in football and hearing that Derrick named his grandson after him—a testament to the strong family bonds he nurtured.

Above all, Tommy was a man of deep faith and devotion to the Lord. His love for life and family shone through in every interaction, as he dedicated himself not only to his children but also to his grandchildren. His enthusiasm for life, passion for the outdoors, and fondness for guns defined his spirit.

“ So heartbroken to learn of Tommy’s passing. We were classmates and graduates of Bovina ‘72. He caused quite a squabble between me and my best friend in Jr. high when we both had crushes on him. Tommy was a gifted athlete and watching him play basketball was magical. He was blessed with such an instinctive ability. Tommy was an important member of our class and he will be missed. Your family is in our prayers.
