“ Dear Weehunt family

I am so sorry for your loss. I am up at 3:30 this a.m. working on the family tree at Ancestry.com and Find-a-Grave websites and someone has already posted his obituary. My mother, Fay Weehunt Martin, will be saddened to hear of this when I call her later today. She speaks highly of all Julian and Louise's children. May he rest in peace

“ My dearest brother we miss you. Darrell, Rhonda & I saw the pain you endured. Oh what a fight you fought. You will be able to have all the nourishment now.....all the Sprites Cokes & jello. How wonderful it was for us to pray with you. Saturday when God called you home we knew the pain & suffering you have endured would be gone. And for this we were also at peace. I could not agree more when Darrell told me you were on your journey with daddy & mom waiting with open arms & Justine playing his violin for your home coming. Till we are together again just know you are forever in our hearts & our memories. Your family LOVE you dearly. XO

“ Daddy,
I was so proud to be your daughter. When I moved to Utah and remember watching the clock waiting for you to get off of work just so I could call you. Then you retired and I got to call you every day! The best was when you learned how to finally text. You got pretty good at it. We had so much fun texting each other. I love you so much daddy!!!! I know you are finally happy and at peace at that warms my heart. You were the most supportive dad any girl could ask for. You were always on my side and I knew that no matter what I could always trust and count on you! I love you more!!!!!!!!!!!!
