“ I'm really sad that I could not attend, but much sadder that she's gone. Larry and Emma, you are in our thoughts and prayers. I, like Larry, went to school with Tracy for 12 years and have many great memories of Tracy and her family. The bus ride home from school... Wow. Remember that Larry? Many years have passed, many of my classmates attended and many times I will regret not being there to wish my final farewell. Larry, hang in their old friend.

“ My sincere condolences to the family. Tracy was an awesome person, great friend and coworker. She taught me so much and always had a caring heart. She was our senior auditor..... Who am I going to call on now? She will be missed. Love you Tracy. I still can't believe you are gone. I'm glad to know you are not in pain and know we have another wonderful Angel looking over us. And I'm going to miss all the stories she shared about Emma. She was a wonderful mom

“ I wish I could say something sage and wonderful that would give comfort. I wish I had a memory to share that was special and magical and could make a smile from the tears. I am grateful for the childhood I had with the young Tracy. I am blessed with the comfort she gave when I lost my Daddy many years later. If only the good die young, there may be a reason to this loss. Too many opportunities to be together are missed and then, like a puff of smoke, all we have is the whisper of warmth lost. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family.

“ So sorry Tracy left this life so early. I remember lots of good times with you and your parents Joy and Jackie. I also remember the time you and Joy came down and we all went to play Bingo, and go thrift store shopping! Too bad the obit got messed up, and did not mention your mother: Joy Baker Nicholson (Windscheffel). I know a mother never wants to outlive their child. I hope you now have the peace you sought so much in life. You will be missed.

“ Growing up down the street from the Nicholson's I was at their house quite often. Tracy always had a smile on her face and was always so nice to me. All of you were!
Tracy, you were taken way to early, but we know that God has his reasons. I am thankful that you are no longer in pain and know that you are watching over your family with a smile on your face.
To the family - I am so thankful that I was a part of your lives and have been able to stay in contact with the help of the lovely internet.
May God Bless each of you in this time.

“ I hardly ever saw you as you grew up. We messaged on FB a few times and you were there for us when Daddy died. What I do remember was you as a kid, playing with my brother and sister, playing with my kids (I'm a lot older than you as you know) when I'd come home to visit. You lost your Grandma Merle before you could ever get to know her so your mom made sure that you felt loved by substituting Mama and Daddy, Merle's twin brother. Yall spent so much time at our house and I babysat for yall MANY many times before I got married. According to you and your brother and sisters, I was the mean one. I actually made you mind and go to bed at a reasonable time...LOL I know as you raised Emma, you understood. I wish you could have grown old with your daughter, your husband, your sisters, your brother, your mom, your dad and all your friends and the rest of your family. But God evidently had other plans for you. We have no idea what those plans are but I know they are for the good and at least now you are no longer suffering. I know everyone will make sure Emma remembers you as the loving mother you were. God bless you and your family.

“ It is a horrible shame you had to leave this life so soon Tracy.... We had a lot of great times together as kids. I remember babysitting you, Shawn, Vickie and Buttons for your Mom and Dad when I was a teenager at first at the trailer park in Lubbock and then in New Deal. After I got married I no longer was babysitting as I had a full time job but we celebrated Birthdays and Holidays together and it was the rare week that went by that we didn't see you, yor Mom and all your sisters and brother at My Mama and Daddy's farm in New Deal. It seems like Joy was always bringing over some kinda uniform or piece of clothing that she needed some help from Mama sewing and all of you and Kelsey and Duayne were usually outside playing and do your remember the Christmases that your Daddy Jackie would dress up as Santa Clause for all of you and all the other kids? I know there was not one Tornado Warning that we were not all together watching the weather in case we had to run down to the cellar ! They were very simple times but they were great times because we were all so very close..we grew apart as we all grew older but I have some really great memories of a very loving family...I so wish that you had enough time on this Earth that we could grow old together and share those old times again....Rest In Peace my dear cousin and may the Angels watch over your sweet Daughter.
