

Tracy Ann Regan

September 2, 1958 - February 7, 2026

Tracy Ann Regan, born on September 2, 1958, in Lubbock, TX, passed away peacefully on February 7, 2026, in Houston, TX, leaving behind a legacy of love and resilience that will be cherished by her family and friends. A dedicated homemaker and Certified Nurses Aid, Tracy devoted her life to caring for others, particularly the elderly and long-term care patients. Her nurturing spirit and compassionate nature made her an exceptional caregiver in every sense.

Tracy was a strong, resourceful woman who always found a way to make family gatherings special. Her talent for cooking was unmatched; she often prepared delicious meals from what little she had, ensuring everyone felt welcome and cared for around her table. Beyond cooking, she enjoyed sewing and loved to dance with her brothers and sister, filling rooms with laughter and joyous memories.

As a devoted mother to her children, Brandy and Eric, and a beloved grandmother to Willow and Hudson, Tracy taught kindness and selflessness to her family. She shared countless unforgettable moments with her siblings and many nieces and nephews, who were all touched by her generosity and warmth. Tracy's love for life and her unwavering support for her family will forever inspire those who knew her.

A graveside service will be held at Bethel Cemetery on February 21, 2026, at 3:00 PM, following a funeral service at Sanders Memorial Chapel at 10:00 AM. Family and friends are invited to come together to celebrate Tracy's remarkable life and the indelible impact she had on everyone around her.

Tracy was preceded in death by: Grover Baker, Ralphelene Baker, Melanie Baker, Michael Baker, Rodney Baker.
