“ We always enjoyed Velma at church one of my favorite memories was when I had colored my hair. We went to church the next day Velma told me " I don't like your hair , it has too much red in it!!" She was a hard working woman at church! We intended to go to the visitation but had company show up just before we went to leave , I am sorry to have missed it. We are sorry for you loss. “ Velma would all ways ask me when ever we had family get to gethers if I wanted a cup of coffee and of coarse I all ways said yes!! Velma could make some pretty stout coffee!!! But I drank it any ways. I think it made her feel good 'cause ever one else would complain about how strong it was

Awesome. I couldn't handle her coffee no matter how much I loved her. LOL. That stuff would grow hair on your chest. XO

“ Aunt Velma was married to my Uncle Troy and they gave me three of my favorite cousins Travis, Terry and Tommy. They loved to dance together at our family reunions. She will be missed by all. Thank you Lord receiving her in heaven where is no pain.

“ Becky Slack - My favorite memory of Velma is one Thanksgiving at the Lake Alan Henry house. Velma and I were in the kitchen cooking, specifically finishing up the mashed potatoes. She was in a silly mood, we were giggling and having a great time! She said to me come help her lick the potato pot after the potatoes had been put in the bowl. I must say she had left a healthy portion in the pot for her and I to dip our fingers into and finish up. We had a blast, one of the happiest times I've ever spent with her. I will really miss her!

“ My Granny will be missed by me. She loved her grilled cheese sandwiches that I would make for her. Favorite memories: She would pucker up her lips whenever I walked into the room for her kiss, spending my lunch hour with her at the nursing home. Another favorite is that I was the only one who would talk back to her when she was demanding. She used to laugh when I'd stand there with my hands on my hips and tell her she had better ask nicely for whatever it was that she wanted. ~ Tamia (Granddaughter)
