

Vicki Ann Cooper

July 21, 1950 - August 10, 2025

Vicki Ann Cooper, cherished mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on August 10, 2025, at the age of 75. Born on July 21, 1950, in Cherokee, Oklahoma, Vicki's vibrant spirit and passion for life touched the hearts of all who knew her. Vicki graduated from Jet High School in 1968 before earning her Bachelor's Degree from Oklahoma State University. For many years, she dedicated her professional life as a Medical Technologist, serving at Okeene Municipal Hospital and Covenant Medical Center until her retirement. Her commitment to caring for others exemplified her compassionate nature. Beyond her professional achievements, Vicki was a talented seamstress and quilter. She lovingly pieced together hundreds of quilts that are now treasured by family and friends. Her creativity and craft were matched only by her dedication to her family. Vicki cherished her time with her grandchildren, teaching them to walk with the Lord, bake, sew, and play the piano. She rarely missed a ball game, soccer match, golf tournament or school event-always showing up with love, cooking, giving rides, and wholeheartedly serving her family. Vicki was actively involved in her community and was a beloved member of Calvary Baptist Church. She served as a Sunday School Teacher, alongside her dear friend Mrs. G, guiding the 2nd and 3rd graders with warmth and devotion. Additionally, she brought joy to many through her participation in the Sonshiner's Senior Adult Choir, where she shared her love of music every Tuesday afternoon at local Senior Care Centers.

Vicki's love for Jesus shaped everything she did. She showed us how to love through her actions, her service and her kindness. She loved God's Word, cared deeply for others, and humbly sought to honor Him in every part of her life. To everybody she knew was an example, an encourager, and our reminder of what it means to walk with the Lord.

Vicki is survived by her son Joey Cooper and daughter-in-law Lindsay Cooper; her grandchildren, Miles and Ellis; her sister Nancy Evans; and her brother Clark Reinhart; and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service to honor Vicki's life will be held on Saturday, August 16, 2025, at 10:30 AM at Calvary Baptist Church. Family and friends are invited to gather and celebrate the beautiful life she led. Vicki was preceded in death by her husband, Dick Cooper and parents; Cecil and Jessie Mary Reinhart.
