“ *Punchard family.
I remember being just a little girl living next door to Vickie and always being at her house running around with Jacey everyday. She was also such a good friend to my grandmother Jinx. My prayers go out to y'all and the family.*

Boys, Vickie raised all of us. She was a great mother, as proven by the gentlemen that she brought up. Everybody loved her, and she was a delight to have around.

“ I grew up down the street from the Punchards on 64th Dr. Vickie treated me like family, let me babysit and I was one of the first neighbors to welcome Jason to the block when he was born. I named my son after Jason years later. I loved her so much and we shared such a special bond!! I could talk to her about anything and for a 12 year old girl in the 70s that sure meant a lot!! RIP my dear friend, you will be deeply missed.
