“ My wonderful memories of you love are when You kidd and I scrounging enough money to take the kids to the carnival with can goods for the bracelet. We had enough to join in on the rides making the kids sick because they could hang with us. Then needless to say the kids were hungry. You asked about the chili & cheese French fry bucket. You were not having it with 11 kids and 3 adults so you said I will be back. Went to dollar tree got buckets then went to united (where you worked) made 4 buckets for us all to share. We stayed until the kids complained about being tired we definitely got out money out them bracelets. Love you chika you will be greatly missed.
