

Vincent Cameron Freeman

July 2, 1951 - April 27, 2023

Vincent Cameron Freeman, 71, of Missouri City, Texas passed away April 27, 2023.

Vince was born July 2, 1951 in Denver City, TX to Claude Freeman and Frances Vaughn. Vince attended Lubbock Monterey High School and then went on to play at Texas Tech for one year. He worked as a tire salesman and manager for over 36 years. He also joined the Mason Freedman Lodge and was a part of that for over 10 years. He enjoyed spending time with people and helping them when needed, he also enjoyed reading to people as well.

Vince was an avid fan of the Texans, Astros, and a red blooded, die hard Texas Tech Red Raider. He wore a Texas Tech shirt almost every day and was not ashamed to show that he was a big fan. Each day over the past many years, he learned to become a better man. He also learned to love the Lord and spent the last two years focusing on Him. He will be greatly missed by his children, grandchildren, friends, and former co-workers.

Loved ones include son Bryce Freeman; daughters Heather Vaughn and Candace Davis; grandsons Martin Freeman, Fonzy Vaughn, Levi Reeves, and James Davis; great-grandchildren Evelyn Reeves, Maddox Vaughn, Nikolai Vaughn, Ace Reeves, and Rome Freeman; and sisters Shelly Terry and Sabrina Cobb.

Preceded in death by father Claude Freeman; mother Frances Vaughn; step-mother Carol Sue Freeman; brothers Claude Freeman III and Kem Freeman; and granddaughter Samantha Freeman.
