

Wanda Louise Meador

March 15, 1929 - October 20, 2023

Wanda Louise Meador, 94, of Lubbock, Texas passed away on October 20, 2023.

Wanda was born March 15, 1929, in Wilson, TX to BW and Celia Baker.

Wanda grew up on the family farm and graduated from Wilson High School. She attended college at Hardin Simmons University and graduated with a degree in education and music. Wanda married Bob Meador in March of 1951. After teaching music in the Lubbock Independent School District for a few years Wanda and Bob started a family and Wanda began a 50 plus year career teaching piano to hundreds of children.

Wanda was a member of the National Music Teachers Association, the Texas Music Teachers Association, the Lubbock Music Teachers Association, the Lubbock Women's Club, and a 73-year member of the First Baptist Church in Lubbock.

Wanda was preceded in death by her husband Bob Meador, her parents BW and Celia Baker, brother Charles Baker, and sister-in-law Jean Baker.

Wanda is survived by her son Jay Meador (Roberta), daughter Cari Dillon (Dennis), two grandchildren Jeff Dillon (Lauren) and Kelly Dillon (Kacey), and two great grandchildren Jamie Dillon and Esther Rose Dillon-Szabo.

The family would like to thank the many caregivers that have provided care, love, and companionship to Wanda over the last few years and the staff at Crown Point Health Suites for the care they have provided.

Visitation will be at Sanders Funeral Home Wednesday, October 25, 2023, at
