“ Uncle Wayne loved family. He loved his kids, and tolerated us nieces and nephews when we'd invade his house while visiting Lubbock. When his parents were still living, you could depend on seeing him checking in on, or rather "having lunch" with them. And when the grandkids, and great grandkids came along, he was in his joy. So proud of, and doting on them. Love to Shelly and Belinda, and all his kids.

“ I was hoping I would get back home before this happened to see you one more time. God speed Wayne, you will be missed but I expect you are too busy visiting with those that passed before you and were waiting for you on the other side.
