William Samson "Sam" Drum

William Samson "Sam" Drum, 77, of Lubbock passed away Tuesday, May 10, 2016 at his home. Memorial services celebrating Sam's life will be held at 1:00 p.m., Friday, May 13, 2016, at Sanders Funeral Home Chapel. Sam was born August 18, 1938 in Morton, Texas to Myrtle and Lewis Drum. He joined the Navy at seventeen then returned to Lubbock and married Jerrienne Mooney. Sam and Jerrienne have two surviving children, Bobby (Sjanna) and Denese (Cindy) Drum; and one granddaughter, Sydni Dyllan Drum. Sam established Drum Plumbing in 1972. He was a master plumber and building inspector until he retired in 2012. Sam later married Deborah Alexander and helped raise three step children, Jeffrey Alexander, Susan Wilson, and Jeromee Alexander. Sam is also survived by two loving sisters, Daphane Nunnally of Seminole, Texas and Minnie Ellen Evans of Levelland Texas. Sam's hobbies include cooking, wood working and loved his ice cream. He will be missed by his family and friends.

“ I did not know Sam or any family. Based on information received from other Texas Drums, it is believed that he is a distant relative of mine. My sympathy and condolences are with Deborah, the children and granddaughter. May God be with you and give you peace.
