“ My prayers are with the family. When I was a kid, I remember Bessie and Wylie and kids coming over. The grown-ups would play dominoes, but not before the ladies made homemade ice cream. The kids stayed busy playing and taking turns cranking the Ice cream maker. Occassionally the kids could play dominoes with help from our parents. Sometimes, the 2 families would meet at Buffalo Lakes to go fishing, and at Mackenzie Park for the Strain family reunions. A lot has happened since then, but I have happy thoughtful memories. A peace to you; Randy, Ronnie, Richard, and Gail, and Thelma and Oscar. Praying. Cousin Barbara Moore Clark.
