Yvonne F. Woody, 83, of Lubbock, Texas passed away peacefully on the morning of March 23, 2024. Her children and granddaughter were at her bedside.

Yvonne Ailene Floyd was born November 19, 1940, in Bakersfield, CA to Linton and Nellie Floyd. She graduated from Roswell High School in 1959. Yvonne married Tim Daniel Sr. on February 19th 1960 in Roswell, NM where they made their home.

Her greatest accomplishments started in July 1962 with the birth of her first child Tracy. She was a stay-at-home mother, until all her children were in school, at which time she went to work for The New York Life Insurance agency as a Sales Agent and then went on to become a Certified Financial Planner.

She traveled later in her life with her then husband Dwain Woody to a variety of international destinations. One of her many passions was volunteering with the Salvation Army and the Children's Orthopedic Foundation at Covenant Medical Center.

In 2012 Yvonne and her daughter Tracy, started a private care giver business called Best In Home Care. Tracy has continued the business to help to carry on her Mother's legacy as wanting to provide quality care for people in their own home.

“ Kelly, I was very saddened to read of your Mom's passing. I have such fond memories of her when we were growing up. I always thought she was just beautiful, inside and out. She treated all of us girls as if we were her own and always made sure we felt welcome in your home. I pray you, Tracy and Timmy all find peace and comfort knowing she is in the arms of Jesus.
